

Amidst patriotic fervor, UPS Channi Himmat celebrates R-Day

GY CORRESPONDENT
JAMMU, JAN 25

Amidst patriotic fervor and "vande matram" chants, the tiny scholars of United Public School, Channi Himmat on Wednesday celebrated the Republic Day in the school premises. The programme was organised by the United Public Educational Trust, Channing Himmat at school in which students from Nursery, KG standards, first and second classes, attired in colourful dresses, presented the cultural items and enthusiastically participated. Trustees of United Public Educational Trust, Channi Himmat namely Pooja Sharma, Diksha and Steafi, were also present on the occasion. Prof. Naresh Gupta of Channi Himmat, Chanchal Sangra, Prof Arti Bakshi, Former HOD, Jammu University were special guests in the programme and they appreciated and showered praises on tiny scholars for their thrilling and spellbound performances. School Principal, Rajni Sharma speaking on the occasion, asked students to spread message of brotherhood, peace, harmony and tranquility across. "Be the messengers of harmony and integrity," the Principal told the gathering. Moreover, the guests lauded the school management for organising a wonderful on the eve of Republic Day and importantly inculcating thoughts of patriotism and responsibilities among children. "Children are our future of tomorrow and proper channelisation with good thoughts always help in nation building. Teaching patriotism in schools besides making them knowledgeable about national days and national heroes including freedom fighters definitely help in developing strong India," expressed the guests. Vice Principal Sarika Sharma, Administrator Jyoti Singh, Cultural Head Shagun, Gurmeet Kour, Neelam and others including Anil Sharma of Sharma and Sharma Printers, Ashok Sharma retired ACDA, Naresh Sharma were also present.

Amidst patriotic fervor, UPS Channi Himmat celebrates R-Day

NIN NEWS SERVICE
JAMMU, JAN 25

Amidst patriotic fervor and "vande matram" chants, the tiny scholars of United Public School, Channi Himmat on Wednesday celebrated the Republic Day in the school premises. The programme was organised by the United Public Educational Trust, Channi Himmat at school in which students from Nursery, KG standards, first and second classes, attired in colourful dresses, presented the cultural items and enthusiastically participated. Trustees of United Public Educational Trust, Channi Himmat namely Pooja Sharma, Diksha and Steafi, were also present on the occasion. Prof. Naresh Gupta of Channi Himmat, Chanchal Sangra, Prof Arti Bakshi, Former HOD, Jammu University were special guests in the programme and they appreciated and showered praises on tiny scholars for their thrilling and spellbound performances. School Principal, Rajni Sharma speaking on the occasion, asked students to spread message of brotherhood, peace, harmony and tranquility across. "Be the messengers of harmony and integrity," the Principal told the gathering. Moreover, the guests lauded the school management for organising a wonderful Republic Day and importantly inculcating thoughts of patriotism and responsibilities among children. "Children are our future of tomorrow and proper channelisation with good thoughts always help in nation building. Teaching patriotism in schools besides making them knowledgeable about national days and national heroes including freedom fighters definitely help in developing strong India," expressed the guests. Vice Principal Sarika Sharma, Administrator Jyoti Singh, Cultural Head Shagun, Gurmeet Kour, Neelam and others including Anil Sharma of Sharma and Sharma Printers, Ashok Sharma retired ACDA, Naresh Sharma were also present.

present.